INPORTS free of duty, 55 per cent, of the total: imports dutiable, 45 per cent, of total. Such is the story for the twelve months of our foreign trade end-ing May 31st.

IT will be difficult for Democrats to convince Englishmen that reciprocity is a humbing in face of such figures as these: Increase in exports of American cottons to Brazil in the eleven months ending June 30th last, 220-73 yards; failing off in sales of similar goods to Bra-zil by Great Britain in same period, 25, 500,000.

DIOLOGO.

The American people are just now getting a good object lesson in the blessings of the numch landed cheapness of the Free-Traie "reformer." It is cleanness, and nothing but cheapness, which is at the bottom of the Homestead trombles—cheapness in the from and stead anarket such as it mever presented before. If steel billets and plg from could command a little better price in this commercy belong there would be no talk of trombe between irou and steel workers and their employers. They are striply getting a teste of cheapness. But they want any more of it?

THE more nearly the products of any Nathon can be consumed within its own berders, the higher will be the price that the producers will receive for the sarphus products that they any happen to have for exportation, and the higher will be the prices paid for the products of all our industries. Receiving high prices for his own product, each producer will be able to pay high prices for such of the products of his fellow producers as he may which consume.
